

60001533352.txt

It is important that we have a choice to watch family and rural programming on our cable or satellite service.

There are too many other types of shows and not enough family oriented for our families. Please don't let big cable take us off the air.

Independent programming is supported by our right to free speech in our constitution.