

60001534567.txt

Dear FCC, I watch rfDTV on dish network. The programming is superb and it is very educational. Most people today have no idea about the absolute necessity of agriculture in the world today. RfDTV provides the education to it's viewers. Beyond this the programming is very entertaining as well as high quality. Please take the steps necessary to protect independent television stations from being removed from these big conglomerate TV networks. Thank you!