

60001534776.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Dish network. As a student of Agriculture in Tennessee. We use RFD-TV in class as a resource for current information about Agriculture markets and issues. RFD-TV also serves as a valuable source Agriculture literacy in our urban and suburban areas. It's great intel on where our food comes from and how it's farmed. It is an essential program which should continue to be offered to be offered in all markets.