

60001534782.txt

I watch RFD-TV on AT&T. It is important to retain this programming because it provides a great service to the rural community, including I understand many elderly, and likely many poor people, and, to my knowledge, this type of programming is not provided by anyone else.