

60001534796.txt

This is the only channel that provides programming based on the farming and agricultural industry. I have a personal interest in farming and equine training, management, and overall husbandry and this is the only channel where I can access these topics. Please don't allow the major cable networks to eliminate this programming just because it doesn't have high numbers of watchers.