

I am writing because my cable company Verizon took off RFD-TV. This was one channel I watched faithfully. Independent programming, like RFD-TV, should be offered in the most economical cable package, and not put on some expensive tier where I have to pay more. Urban based media giants should not block rural content from being distributed due to their own bias. PLEASE bring back RFD-TV