

60001535152.txt

I watch RFD TV on Dish and would miss it. It is the only station that gives me a personal perspective on how our food is grown and where technology is leading us. There is a lot of urban trash TV on the networks that SHOULD be cut. I don't agree with removing my only access to RFDTV which offer useful insight into the rural community who grow our food and are the backbone of America.