

60001535314.txt

I strongly disagree with this proposal. The FCC modified the 80 meter phone band to increase the Extra Class allocations about 10 Years ago. The requirement for Morse code was remove from the license qualifications before that. The US at this time has more individuals licensed than any time in history; over 700,000. The Armed Forces has stopped using Morse for messaging.

This proposal to add more room for Morse Code makes no sense.