Re: Lifeline and Link-Up Reform and Modernization, WC Docket No. 11-42

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On March 14, 2016, Alan Buzacott, Maggie McCreedy, and Catherine Hilke of Verizon met with Rebekah Goodheart, Wireline Legal Advisor to Commissioner Clyburn, to discuss the above-captioned proceeding.

In the meeting, we emphasized that the Commission should ensure that the National Eligibility Verifier begins operation as quickly as possible, in order to reduce the burdens on customers and carriers alike. We also emphasized that participation in broadband Lifeline should be optional for all carriers, and that the Commission should make clear that states do not have the authority to layer additional broadband Lifeline-related obligations on top of federal requirements. Finally, we explained that if the Commission elects to phase out Lifeline support for standalone voice service, it should phase out support in a technologically-neutral manner.

This letter is being filed electronically pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
