

60001535866.txt

RFD TV is a very important source for up to date financial information on commodities as well as the meat industry. It is also a great educational source for all not familiar with farm operations and food sources. It is very important for small farmers to access information on fertilizers and weed controls. This is the most important industry in our country and we it goes, we are all gone.