

60001536489.txt

I watch RFD-TV on DirecTV. I am in favor of keeping RFD-TV on the air and I support this station and all the programs it offers the rural and urban community of our nation.

It provides vital information about Markets and Educational programs designed to help our farmers do a better job of providing food for our nation. To take this away would be very detrimental to the welfare of our country.