

60001536700.txt

I watch RFD Tv on Directv Satellite service. I have watched this channel for many years. Not only can I keep up to date on commodity prices but I get current information on the state of health of our national and local agribusiness. I also like the weekend Country music programming. RFD Tv plays an active role in getting our youngsters interested in agriculture and possibly pursuing a career in farming or ranching or both.