

60001541784.txt

We watch RFDTV on DirecTV several hours every day. It is our most used resource for news, weather, entertainment and educational programming. We are chagrined to hear that there is some possibility of this station be dropped and write to ask that it be continued. It is very important to rural communities, and to many others who appreciate the quality programming it provides.