

60001541853.txt

Hello, I watch RFD TV on cable provider Huxcomm. I am told that the FCC is taking action to force such stations off the air or at least compromise them. I have heard similar news concerning local radio stations such as WHO in Des Moines, Iowa which we listen to frequently also. My wife and I do not want you to take any action which would compromise in any way or in the slightest extent diminish these stations or others like them. Don Todd