

60001548165.txt

RFD tv is the life line for my 93 year old father to stay connected to his life when he was a younger man. He watches RFD everyday. Especially for us living in the city these days. Please don't take away what my father and my family watch on a daily basis.