

60001548169.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Dish network. This channel is one you can let your whole family watch without having to worry about sex, violence and bad language. The programs are interesting and educational. The music is varied and very entertaining. There is always something good to watch. We are worried about what is happening to rural tv in our area.

Thank you for listening, Gloria Luft