

60001549608.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Dish. It is a very wonderful network and I enjoy it very much. Their programs are family oriented and cover a variety of topics. It is very important to have a network dedicated to the rural customers. That doesn't mean it is not viewed by customers in the city. Their programming appeals to everyone. Do not stop this GREAT network from being on all independent networks. Our country needs this type of programming. Thank you.