

60001551657.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Direct-TV, and I am very concerned about losing this channel. The programs are both entertaining and informative to me because I am a farmer. I believe this channel is also important to non-agricultural people because it educates them on how their food and fiber is produced. Plus it shows the hard work and dedication it takes to produce food and fiber.