

60001552910.txt

Why would you want to take away a TV channel that has so much diversity, important information, it has so many good shows that cannot be found on any other station. The satellite television stations have so many worthless stations that pretty much copy each other and many of them are never watched by me. If I were to have only one station to watch it would be RFDTV!!!