

60001552913.txt

I watch RFD-TV on DIRECTV. I feel all citizens rural and urban can benefit from the programming on this channel. It puts a face on the people that are producing the food for this country. It shows the public the modern farming and ranching practices, which is an excellent way for rural Americans to show how we care for our animals and land. Please make RFD-TV available to everyone.