

60001552942.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Direct TV. I know of many "city" people that have gained interest in livestock, especially horses, by watching the great variety of programs on this station and would be a great loss to many if it was discontinued!

We need new people to become involved in these industries and that happens with RFD-TV.

Do not hinder progress by cancelling this vital station!