

60001553031.txt

I think the Fcc should issue a Life time amatuer radio license. By doing this a lot of paper work would be eliminated saving a large amount of money in processing fees and labor entering information into computers.