

60001553402.txt

Agriculture needs this programming just the same as Wall Street needs CNBC, Bloomberg, etc. There must be a balance of programming to allow a diversity to keep flourishing in America. If we allow ourselves to be influenced by a select few we will lose our true identity in short order. Rfd does not push any agenda or viewpoint other than the love of country living. It should be looked at with other programming pushing their views