

60001558776.txt

I currently watch RFD-TV on Dish Network. I urge the FCC to regulate the cable conglomerates and prevent them from dropping rural and family networks such as RFD-TV from their line up that is so important to my family and me. This is the only channel that provides the traditional country music programming that is so dearly loved by millions that is unavailable anywhere else, as well as other family oriented shows. Thanks...