

60001561472.txt

Out country was based on everyone having the opportunity to be successful. Too often we hear about big corporations ruining small family owned businesses. The FCC has the chance to stick up for the little guy. Deny the merger of these cable providers so that upstart cable channels have equal opportunity to be seen and heard
Thank you