

60001562769.txt

We watch RFD TV on Great Plains Cable network. Our mornings usually begin with watching the weather and markets and other interesting programming of innovations in agriculture. We find the programming to be clean, informative, and appropriate for viewing by the entire family, unlike most programming on other networks. We would be devastated if the FCC allowed this network to be taken from our list of networks.