

60001564235.txt

I watch RFDTV on DirecTv and love it. I live in the city but am personally bound to country living. I have a horse and have learned so much from some of the leading trainers that share their knowledge on their shows. No other channel offers this type of programming. The FCC owes it to viewers to provide this type of programming. Even those of us in the city appreciate our country culture. Thank you.