

60001564347.txt

I watch RFDTV on Dish network. RFD is important to keep me informed of global economic agricultural data, livestock management, and product and market development for specialty agricultural crops. The RFD educates producers and more importantly, consumers who provide the ultimate economic life to my community and state.