

60001565274.txt

Syndicated channels like RFD TV are not available over the broadcast spectrum especially in rural areas like Appleton. If not for DISH network carrying this channel I could not receive it. It begs for protection by the FCC. This is important programming and appeals to the values that make America strong. A healthy culture needs to know the values of those who feed them.