

60001566481.txt

I watch RFD-TV on Time Warner. To get it, I have to buy a special package of channels of which only the RFD-TV channel is of interest. It is rather expensive. Though we now live in the city, both my wife and I were farm raised and enjoy the RFD-TV programming. I believe there are many others like us and would like to see the independent channel programming made broadly and affordably available.