

60001566587.txt

I should have the right to choose which news network I watch. Charter does not allow One America News Network on Charter. This is censorship of my right to know what is actually going on in the world since mainstream channels offer edited versions of the news stories they cover and no coverage of many stories. If they are to merge with other big companies, one of the conditions should be that they allow all news networks to broadcast on their channels.