

60001567543.txt

We exclusively watch One America News, over CNN and other news stations. It is one of the best news sources. We hope FCC will consider smaller independent entities such as One America News and its sister station, A Wealth of Entertainment, when debating cable mergers and other such changes. We would move more to online news sources if we were forced to go back to CNN.