

60001567555.txt

My husband and I are retired ranchers/farmers. We look to RFDTV to keep us abreast of the current trends as well as the futures in grains and livestock. Not only does RFDTV have excellent agriculture programs but their entire format is family oriented. I pray you will use your power to address what the big companies are attempting to do and stop this nonsense once and for all.