

60001567878.txt

I watch RFD TV on Direct TV. I think RFD TV should continue to be available to everyone rural and urban. RFD TV is educational for both the farming community and those who live in the cities. Too many of our citizens do not have any idea where their food comes from and what it takes to produce it.