

60001568422.txt

Chairman Wheeler,

I'm writing to urge you to restore broadband competition by fixing the broken market for high-capacity broadband lines. I look to the FCC to address anti-competitive behavior in this market to reach its goal of delivering better, faster, cheaper broadband to all Americans. The future of our information economy depends on it.
Donald McNally