

60001569132.txt

Charter Communications is the worst cable company I've ever dealt with. Their equipment is inferior to competitors and always malfunctioning, requiring frequent replacement. Their high speed cable service is constantly inoperative and unreliable requiring multiple service calls with questionable proficiency of its technicians. Refusing to allow One America News network to join its lineup while allowing gay and lesbian oriented channels is particularly disturbing.