

60001569189.txt

I think the cable and satellite services should provide customers with at least the option to subscribe to a wide range of news service networks.