

60001570049.txt

Please put the rule change through. Customers can only benefit from being able to choose and purchase their own set-top devices. Please also make the cable companies do away with CableCard and devise a software only decryption scheme. CableCard has been the bane of media PCs which would provide an attractive alternative to third-party set-top boxes and also allow individuals to acquire, curate, and view their own digital media collections.

Thanks,
--Ed--