

18 April 2016

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to express my support for RM-11760. While it takes little time for a person to renew their license, it is huge drain on FCC resources while providing little benefit. If a person moves they can still update their address. I feel the time, resources and money currently allocated by the FCC to this renewal process could be better spent elsewhere.

Martin Vidrine – KF7OYJ