My husband & I are Seniors line
in the country we are country we love RFD the music & some of the programs.

In fact we watch most other independent channels that's the source of most of the news, we ~~do~~ have satellite of course to get our local also.

Dear FCC, Proceeding number 16-41

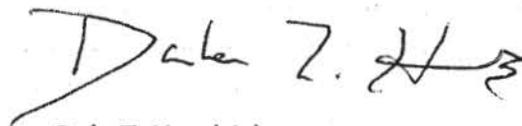

I am an avid viewer of RFD-TV on Mediacom Cable in Harris Co., GA. It has been brought to my attention that this station/channel is being censored in some urban areas for some arbitrary reason. This concerns me greatly, as I find that RFD-TV is one of the most informative and entertaining stations available. I have absolutely no problem with having urban entertainment on my cable; I have no desire to have it removed due to whatever the popular sentiment is at the time. However, to remove a station with such versatility seems extremely regressive.

My viewing of RFD started with a show called 'Corn College' (now called 'Farm Journal College'), showing all the many intricacies of growing one of the most difficult food-producing plants on the market and a true staple on the food table in this county. My viewing then expanded to 'Agribusiness', 'Cattlemen to Cattlemen', and 'U.S. Farm Report'. Then, I discovered the great music shows and became an avid watcher of the station on a daily basis. To my knowledge, there are no other stations offering such variety and knowledge-based programming.

For all the faithful who watch in whatever environment they dwell, I beseech you to continue to support such a varied station as this.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Dale T. Hendricks

Dear FCC,

This is in regard to 16-41. I live near Monument, Colorado, which is between Denver & Colorado Springs. I watch RFD TV on Direct TV.

I enjoy many different programs on RFD, including music, especially seeing people dancing in a family type of setting much like the neighborhood dances held in small communities in the early 1930's & on.

I also love to watch the stories of families who raise livestock & see their beautiful properties & the love they have for family, land, & livestock.

Even the DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL shows of agricultural machinery are enjoyable as it's fascinating to see the changes over the years.

The rural areas in this country are truly the heart of it. They are the base & strength of it with their strong family values & love of the land. If we lose that the country will collapse entirely.

People think our cities are so wonderful but they are truly nothing

Dear FCC

Proceeding 16-41

I watch RFD-TV on Direct TV because I like country music and family type shows. I do live in the country but I do not farm. I am a retired school bus driver.

I believe everyone in the world should know where their food comes from and how and where it is produced and that it is safe to eat. RFD brings shows and reports on growing crops and producing food products. Agriculture Shows on RFD show farming methods and farm equipment that is important to the farmers in rural America. Information on the Dairy industry and cattle are all important to our farmers and ranchers in rural America. RFD keeps the farmers and ranchers informed on the weather in their areas. Farmers and ranchers and small crop growers for our Farm Markets in our cities need to know the best growing and producing methods to bring the best foods to our tables.

RFD provides family entertainment and country music that is hard to find on major large networks. Where else do you find entertainment like Mollie B's Polka show? Senior Citizens and retired farmers enjoy watching shows from the past about old farm tractors and old farm equipment. RFD provides this type of entertainment.

I think these independent channels are being discriminated against and eliminating the things that are important in peoples lives. The satellite and cable companies are letting the major networks control what channels they get for their packages, because, they do not make enough money from the independent companies. There needs to be a way the customer can choose their satellite and cable stations without taking things away and raising rates.

Please do not let the major networks control the RFD TV packages on their cable or satellite TV.

I watch RFD-TV on Suddenlink -

I do not understand the politics of television programming, but I do know that I like being able to have a choice of which television programs I watch - and RFD-TV is the best television station for rural and senior America! I also know it is frustrating for those customers who Verizon FiOS dropped; therefore; it is most important for FCC to protect independent programmers so that customers can have choices of television viewing. Please make FiOS TV bring back RFD-TV and/or carry RFD-HD.

Thank you.

I would like to express my hope that FCC will continue to permit B.F.D. to broadcast their programs for Urban & Rural Customers. I watch B.F.D. more than I do the time I watch TV. It is simply wonderful.

Little Houses & Cattle, All kinds of music, parade of Pigeons, Marty Stewart, Burns on Road, West of Wall Street and 6:30 News.

Other Channels or Companies can learn a lot about what customers like from B.F.D. TV.

I hope you will continue on the air.

If they go I will follow:

Rural Americas most Important Network!

Dear F.C.C.,
We have DISH Network!

We are two older senior citizens in our 70's. We have farmed since 1960 and now are semi-retired. We spend most of our evenings watching television.

Except for our local news channels, we watch RFD TV at least 80% of the time. We have a large package of channels and watch only a chosen few. Several of the channels are not fit to watch. They do not make any sense and some programming is really far out! No wonder some kids as ~~DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL~~ adults get crazy ideas and do crazy things from watching some of these channels. Without RFD TV, we would have a hard time finding a channel worth watching.

RFD TV has a very good variety of information for all ages and all types of people. Markets, weather and lots of other informational entertainment. We are RODEO people and especially enjoy watching the rodeos; recently, The AMERICAN; and Western Sports Roundup. So without RFD TV we would not have a good reason to even turn on the television at any time.

So discontinuing RFD TV would affect many people, young and old, and people in all walks of life.

We sure hope a good decision can be made very soon. We do appreciate the hard work which is being done to keep RFD TV. on the air.

Hope our opinion does some good!
