

60001690841.txt

I thoroughly enjoy the programming of RFD TV not only for it's educational value but also it's entertainment. While I primarily watch equine related programming I also view many other of the offered non-equine programs. RFD TV continues to provide a television viewing opportunity not available from any other television broadcasting system. Please maintain their license and availability to the public