

60001817539.txt

Our LPFM station serves a niche area, which includes a hospital and veterans' service organizations.

While the information is very useful and oftentimes critical to both, the fringe coverage because of building structures precludes many from hearing it.

It would be most excellent to increase power levels, not so much to extend range, but to overcome the issues caused by modern commercial construction techniques.