

60001841448.txt

Google and Microsoft have had a friendly and close relationship with the NSA. There is little doubt that both have been given the "back-door key" to enter any Windows computer that they want. Is this to keep the masses under surveillance? It looks like the Federal Govt is leaving yet another back-door for yet more stat keeping on the masses. Shame on you, violators of the Constitution.