

60001841907.txt

As president of the North American QRP CW Club, currently with more than 8000 members, I am completely opposed to this proposal. Morse code telegraphy continues to be a popular and vital communication mode in the amateur radio community. Elimination of the CW sub-bands would have a detrimental effect to this mode and would negatively impact countless numbers of amateur radio operators.

Thank you.
Paul Huff, N8XMS