

60001841943.txt

As an amateur radio operator who enjoys CW, please reject this proposal as it would make operating with CW more difficult in the current subbands. CW is a more efficient mode and it needs its own portion of each band to avoid interference by phone operators. Also, I have rarely experienced situations in which the phone portion of the band is full of signals and needs to be expanded. Thank you for listening to my input on this matter.