

60001841949.txt

Eliminating our HF CW sub-bands would make it very hard for CW operators to find/hear each other among SSB transmissions. CW is able to work very well at very low power, so many CW operators are QRP or QRPP transmitting in milliwatts. There is no way this would be possible without a section of the band restricted for CW. Thank you.