

60001842146.txt

I file in objection to this proposed Rule change for cw subband elimination. It is unnecessary and not in the best interest of the majority. CW continues to be the most effective mode for communication during poor conditions for Emergency Traffic, is effective at low power and minimal band width. the Petitioner has failed to show any extenuating need to make any such change and should be denied.

Edward Porter de N30B