

Please do not remove these CW sub bands. I have been working on my receiver and transmitter for years, and the other digital modes that many times are unacompanied by the operator could care less that we are 'out there'. This is one mode that should be respected by all, and a little portion of the bands would show that respect.