

60001997368.txt

The major networks are selling a product, not news anymore. Please support efforts by legitimate networks to offer the public real news that isn't owned by major political backers. Our founding fathers would be sick to know the current press uses their rights to influence votes/thoughts/actions.