

60002018007.txt

I oppose unnecessary set-top box regulations that will mean higher bills, fewer choices, and less privacy on TV. The television and video market today is full of great choices, why put such a healthy market at risk with complex and unnecessary new mandates?